DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of Oceana High School, dedicate this yearbook to the boys of our class who discontinued their studies to join the Armed Forces.

These boys have shown loyalty and have upheld their standards in school. Their deep understanding and devotion have made them known and loved by everyone.

The first year in any school is rather difficult for principal, faculty and students. However, as the school year is rapidly coming to a close I have learned to know all students better and, day by day, I am further convinced that you are an excellent group of boys and girls. I, also, am conscious of the fact that deep down in your hearts you have the welfare of the school and community in mind and a desire to do that which is right.

Congratulations to the Senior class of 1951 upon your many achievements and my greatest hope for you is that you make a success in life. I would ask that you remember the following statement: "There is no substitute for work".

As you leave your Alma Mater to begin a new phase in the development of your life, remember that success comes to those who earn it. Strive to do each task that you begin to the best of your ability. Your accomplishments for your Alma Mater merit praise. Continue to go forward, seeking to do right to your fellow man.

Dear Edward,
I hope you will be as successful as college as you have been at Acorn.

This is it and it's all yours!

Finally the culmination of months of hard work is here. The brains behind it employed all of their capabilities, and we hope you like the results.

From September 'til latter February we worked furiously and hard in order to be able to send the dummy to press by March.

As far as ads go, the salesmen worked all the time. It was most gratifying to see our funds rise, and we knew that one of our worries was over. We had few left after this one important road was traveled.

At last all the articles were written, rewritten, and checked. What with papers and words flying left and right we—at first—could hardly find ourselves. But we mastered the art of climbing out of a paper mound, and so we were on the road to success.

Now, finally, it's finished; and we can sit back and watch its success.

Miss Margaret Bailey and Mrs. M. J. Owens were the sponsors for the 1951 CAVALIER.

THE GUIDING HANDS

This has been a very busy year for the Student Cooperative Association.

Our Student Cooperative Association has been chiefly concerned with the establishment of a monitorial system. These monitors have been stationed at various places throughout the school in an effort to bring about individual cooperation along the student level.

STANDING: Anita Cruser, John Lane, Herman Staats, Walter Whitehurst.

Under the very capable leadership of our sponsor, Mr. Cox, and President Skippy Hull, many of our goals have been achieved. For example, the framing of a constitution has been one of these.

In January the county held an S. C. A. meeting. Kempsville, Creeds, and Oceana high schools participated in this meeting.

Oceana was fortunate in the straw drawing and had the privilege of providing the president this year. Marylewis Peck was chosen from Oceana as president.

"A CASE OF SPRINGTIME"

Pace, action, and a humor that varied from chuckles to roars combined to make "A Case of Springtime" a delightful comedy for any audience. Bob is a high school senior with troubles; and his girlfriend, parents, and principal can't seem to understand him. However, they all get together and discover that Bob is really a sweet little boy and very innocent!

"A Case of Springtime" gave our Seniors a chance to show their talent, and everyone was a huge success.

Brains, Efficiency, Trustworthy, Active . . .

This large group of Betas was very active this year as always. Their scholastic standing was very high. Oceana is very proud of this group for the outstanding activities of its members.

Last year they attended the Convention in Richmond and had such a wonderful, good, first-rate time that all wanted to go to the Convention this year in Roanoke. The experiences obtained from the Conventions will never be forgotten by those who attended.

With their record in high school this fine group should go far in life. So hats off to these capable students.

Edward, the next time I have known you all I can say is I wish you lots of luck & cheer. Keep up the work.

The LIGHTHOUSE began its twenty-seventh year of publication by a campaign for subscriptions. Enough were received to guarantee a five issue year —each copy being printed.

The staff held regular meetings and dedicated each issue to a class, starting with the eighth grade and working to the seniors in the last issue. The LIGHTHOUSE also published a very informative "Football Review."

We hope that in the years to come the newspaper will be better and better.

And the Band Played On

This year has been the best yet for the band. We received the long-needed new uniforms, and they are said to be the finest in this section of the state in a high school group. They arrived just in time for Kempsville's Turkey Bowl game. Everyone is really proud of these new uniforms.

The band marched in high spirits at all of the football games and was really a credit to O. H. S. The band went to Williamsburg for one of William and Mary's important games. We also marched for the Oyster Bowl through all the icy rain and wind with few ill effects—new uniforms and all. The band was invited to Smithfield's Homecoming and many other places, where everyone had a wonderful time.

Walter Whitehurst was elected captain, while Billy Jenkins became co-captain. Nancy Dawson, Billy Bartee, and Warren Brinkley were elected as lieutenants. Mr. James A. Cantwell, the director, has really worked hard with the band.

The Band Parents Club has done a marvelous job in helping the band in every possible way to pay for the uniforms, and we are all very grateful to them.

MUSICALLY SPEAKING

Our Glee Club was small but mighty this year. When we selected officers, Skippy Hull became president. Janet Fentress became secretary-treasurer, while Walter Whitehurst was librarian. We gave a good Christmas program of familiar carols for the P. T. A., and we also sang in assembly twice before Christmas. After that, our main interest was the Operetta. The Glee Club was honored by singing in some of the local churches.

The Eighth-Grade chorus and the high school Choral Club aided the Glee Club in the main presentations.

"To make the best better." With this as our motto, we found in the fall that our club had grown from a small one to a body of seventy members.

At our monthly meetings, which were held every first Monday, we worked on our projects. There were about fifteen main projects.

However, our club was not all work. For entertainment we had parties, trips, County Achievement Programs, etc. This year our club was one of the clubs of eight counties in Virginia to be awarded the National Recreation Award.

Under the leadership of Mr. Ozlin, Miss Craig, Mr. Brothers, Mrs. Brinkley, Mrs. Sandidge, and our officers this has indeed been a successful year!

At the beginning of the 1950-1951 school year the remaining Oceana cheerleaders of last year met. They chose their Captain and Co-Captains. The six girls left from last year were: Bessie Caffrey, Captain; Mae Coleman and Leanora Holt, Co-Captains; Jane Midgette, Leegie Malbon, and Marilou Shaffer. There were four girls needed to complete the squad. The Student Body of Oceana selected the following girls: Catherine Meeks, Jann Palmer, Juanita Aldridge, and Doris Harcum. Through the ups and downs these ten girls led the cheers for the Cavaliers.

Continual practice, determined interest, and genuine fellowship symbolized the Literary Club of Oceana High School during the year 1950-1951.

Before the Christmas holidays the club members helped aid the holiday spirit by reading in study halls and some of the classes many of the Christmas poems and stories that we all love.

Club members practiced poetry and prose reading, spelling, debating, and public speaking during lunch periods, at night, and whenever possible.

Debates given throughout the year have been of interest to the student body, one program being presented to the P. T. A.

In the month of March, the Club sponsored a radio program over Norfolk Stations.

THE SHOW MUST GO ON

Ora Dail Hardy, Faye Lee Green, Herman Staats, Patsy Abernathy, Wilbur Snow, Doris Harcum, Herman Medlin, Marylewis Peck, Juanita Aldridge, Carole Ratley.

The Dramatic Club met at the beginning of the term and was off to a good start. At an important meeting we elected as our officers Ora Dail Hardy, President; Juanita Aldridge, Secretary; and Patricia Abernathy, Treasurer.

We also named our objectives for the year and determined to fulfill them. These objectives were to produce a Christmas pageant, a one-act play to enter the competition in this district, and to work on a three-act play in May.

We completed our Christmas Pageant, which was entitled "At the Inn" and were so overjoyed at the success of the pageant, we started working on our one-act play, "Happy Journey." This was also a great success when we presented it in March.

As we look back on our year's work, we are greatly pleased with the results. But we realize that we owe most of it to our sponsors, Mrs. McCloud and Miss Loving.

This year has been a busy one for the Allied Youth.

Our annual membership drive brought the number of our members to twice that of last year. Our election of officers resulted in the installation of the following:

President	Herman Medlin
Vice-President	Warren Brinkley
Secretary	Peggy Lou Wood
Treasurer	Marilyn Luedke
Sponsor	Mrs. Julia Hudgins
Co-Sponsor	Mr. Tarrah

At the annual Allied Youth conference at Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania, we were represented by our president, Herman Medlin, who brought back much inspiration and useful information.

Allied Youth is a teen-age organization designed to help young people learn the facts about alcohol and face the social pressure for drinking.

OUR ATHLETICS

DYNAMIC TENSION !

SEATED: Jimmy Bradt, George Aldridge.

STANDING: Earl Reitelback, Edward Wright, Billy Powell, Albert Morecock.

Tennis was introduced into our Athletic Program last year through the efforts of Buddy Leatherwood and Edward Wright and this year is expected to have a more complete schedule than last year when only two matches were played. The team will probably be led by Al Morecock, winner of the Virginia Beach Junior Tournament in 1950, Edward Wright and George Aldridge, the only returning players from last years' squad. It is hoped by the members of the team to make tennis a lasting activity of the Cavalier Athletic Program.

TAPE BREAKERS

SEATED: Julian McDaniels, Roger Miles, Herman Staats.

STANDING: Edward Wright, Stephen McDaniels, Alfred Smith, Earl Reitelbach.

The "Cavalier" Thinclads had a difficult time in producing a team to furnish top-notch competition this year because of the loss of several members of the squad by graduation and draft. However, the team is strengthened greatly by a large number of new candidates. Led by Julian McDaniels, the "Cavaliers" put up a good showing in the District Meet last year. This year the team boasts formidable middle-distance runners, weight men, jumpers, and capable contestants in other events.

FIRST ROW: Billy Hall (asst. manager), Reed Godfrey, Perry Chambers, Jimmy Darden, Royce Eyrd, Bobby Bourdon, Frank Allen, Terry McCall, Skippy Hull, Curtis Widgeon, Dale Brown, Herve Ouellette (Asst. manager).

THEY THREATENED

The season opened with Oceana invading Norview. How the Cavaliers played that night and all through the season! After reviewing the results of the games we found that we had won three games and lost six.

Our last game was with Kempsville in their stadium. Both teams played a defensive type of football, each out to win. In the third quarter Oceana came out fighting to score the only T. D. of the game. This ended the season with the final game in favor of the Cavaliers.

WE YELL TOO

J. V. FOOTBALL

The "Little Cavaliers", coached by Mr. F. E. Taylor, started with a green team which gradually grew into a hard and seasoned eleven. Russell Allen and Johnny McCloud were chosen Captain and Co-Captain respectively.

Size proved to be no obstacle for the little "mites." The shifty little eleven bowled over much heavier teams than their own. With two defeats at the first of the season the "Little Cavaliers" rolled back with four wins. This year's Junior Varsity will produce many good prospects for next year's Varsity squad.

J. V. CHEERLEADERS

In the last two years Oceana High has had something new added. Jayvee cheerleaders have been organized. This year the high school faculty elected seven new girls. They were Frances Martin, Carol Lee Strange, Janice McDonald, Frances Harvey, Anna Themides, Charlotte Scarborough, and Grace Vakos. Left from last year were Janet Lee Fentress, Betty Jean Caton, and JoAnn Russell. The cheerleaders elected Janet Lee Fentress for captain and Betty Jean Caton for co-captain.

The girls cheered hard and helped encourage the boys to pull through with flying colors. Next year they are all looking forward for bigger things and hope to be Varsity cheerleaders.

TWICE CHAMPIONS

The Oceana girls, of the 1950-51 basketball season, were winners in two divisions. They beat Kempsville 54 to 35 to win the County Championship. With a win of 19 games and 1 loss for the season, they were tied with Suffolk for first place. On February 28, they traveled to Kempsville for the play-off game on a neutral court. They were victorious with the score 64-44. Midgette was high scorer with 37 points. This gave Suffolk their worse defeat since competition playing. The win gave the Oceana lassies the District Championship.

For the seasons total number of points, Midgette had 399, Shaffer 248, and Harcum 227. On the offense were Caffrey, MacCubbin, and Malbon. Everyone on the team played an important part, and each express their appreciation to their coach, Miss Joanne Sterling.

Coach F. E. Taylor built up the Varsity Basketball team from a group of candidates very much depleted by the previous year's graduation and the present Korean crisis. Faced with the task of rounding out a team with but one returning letterman—Wilson Johnson—we believe that Coach Taylor has done a fine job in producing a team that furnished top competition for all comers despite their inexperience and lack of height. The "Cavaliers" will return to the courts next year with a formidable team which should be a leading contender for the District Championship and the number of sophomores on the team gives promise of strong teams for some time in the future.

Class History

In September, 1946, the faculty and members of the student body of Oceana High School witnessed the arrival of the first eighth grade class. We became known as the blue-streak demons who knocked everybody down in the halls. The eighth graders were allowed to participate in only a few of the activities of the school, but we showed our value in J. V. sports, the newspaper, the glee club, and the band.

Our freshman year began with football season. Several of our classmates made the team, and one of the cheerleaders came from our class. We also participated in such activities as the basketball teams, dramatic club, and we continued on the newspaper staff. Some of our glamour girls were in the May Day Court, and we were represented in the band. We were improving a little, but we still had a long way to go.

September came, and we found ourselves back here again. That year we studied a little harder and tried to develop into good school citizens, so that we could pave the way for the next two years. These we knew would be the most important years in our school life.

Upon entering our junior year many tasks were ours to fulfill. Many of our boys played football and made headlines, while seven of our girls, as cheerleaders, cheered them on to victory. One of the highlights of the football season was the first "Ocean Bowl" game held at our beautiful new Cavalier Stadium. With the end of football season the Juniors began working hard to prepare for our Junior-Senior banquet. To raise money for this we had a movie, dance, and a variety show.

Our girls basketball team was tops this year, with several of our classmates among the leaders.

Springtime came and with it a very successful Junior-Senior banquet with all the trimmings.

Although the year had been a successful one for us, we were more than glad to see June roll around with the promise of our Senior year not far in the future.

Well, we were finally here—yes, the year that we had all looked forward to. Although many of our boys had gone into the Armed Forces, we still had a fine senior class.

Our first big event of real importance was the receiving of our class rings. For days we walked around the halls saying, "Wanta see a pretty ring?" This event gave us the feeling that we were really the "big wheels" around O. H. S. now.

Our Senior year was by no means a push over as far as studies were concerned. Most of us had pretty short fingernails after our mid-semester exams.

Then our calling cards came and our invitations were on order—our first step toward graduation.

For days no one talked of anything but annual pictures, subscriptions, and ads. We all worked very hard on this Cavalier. We wanted a book we could really be proud of.

In February we began work on the Senior play, "A Case of Springtime." When it was presented, it was a big success.

Before we knew it our caps and gowns had arrived. Then we really buzzed with excitement, because we knew the day of graduation was close at hand.

As we look back on those memorable years in high school, we realize that they were among our most treasured days. With tender memories we leave these days behind, and with eagerness we look toward the future.

Prophecy of the Class of 1951

It is now the year 1961, and we find ourselves at the reunion of the Class of 1951 of Oceana High School. We decided that since "The Famous Sandbox" was a favorite hangout in 1951, this well-known night club, which is now owned by our old friend Joan Curles, would be the best place for the party.

The first to arrive are the entertainers. Among them are Fanny Gilbert with her "Hucklebuck"; Joe Burroughs and Walter Whitehurst as "Amos 'n Andy"; Lee Scarborough, who has taken over Jerry Lewis's position in the entertainment world; and Blair Willcox, who dives from a platform 50 feet high into a wet sponge.

Admiral Ed Wright arrives with his wife, the former Audrey Morse. Audrey always did want to marry a Naval officer.

Van Nance has just recently been voted the most energetic person alive with his wife Nancy running him a close second, so they get a big hand when they arrive.

Buddy Owins has just gotten back from Arabia. We understand he really enjoyed the harems.

We are glad to see that Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aydlett could make it to the party. Leanora hired Burnley Rhue as baby sitter to stay home with their five children.

Jane Midgette is the next to arrive. She is now head of the sales department at Rose's Five and Ten Cent Store. Everybody wonders if Jane is still as big a flirt as ever.

Doris Miller, who we understand is the highest paid stenographer in the U. S., arrives with that millionaire play boy, Clarence Snyder.

It is only proper that Bessie Melvin, Miss America of 1951, should arrive with Buddy Carroll, who is as good looking as ever. Buddy now owns a chain of gifts shops that extends over all the country.

The stags are beginning to arrive. Among the first are Wilson Glenn Johnson and Peyton William Hull, who are still the best catches for some lucky girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Morse have just arrived. Pee Wee made a fortune while he was in the Coast Guard, so Bessie is building a gym on her forty acre estate for her five sons to form a basketball team of their own.

Reed Godfrey, who has won all the sailing regattas for the past few years all over the country, arrives with his sailing companion, Betty Saunders.

Marylewis Peck, the famous scientist, has invented some glassless glasses. We always knew Marylewis would come through with something big some day.

Dr. Floyd Brown sends us a telegram saying that he will not be able to attend the party, as he is attending the opening of his newest and largest drug-store. A phone call came from Faye Smith saying that she would not be able to get here tonight since she has to tell fortunes at Melvina's Gypsy Tearoom.

We always say "better late than never." Betty Brown and Ray Hutsenpiller finally get here. Betty's picture appeared recently on the cover of Charm. It must be those pretty blue eyes that made her a million dollar baby.

Looking across the room, we see a big crowd. In the center of the crowd is Anita Capps still telling those jokes for which she is so famous.

Dalton "Hotrod" Midgett drives up in his 1961 Dynaflo-Hydramatic Ford with Nancy Dawson at his side.

Miss Bailey, our former teacher, tells us that she has a tea-party every afternoon, and any of us that would like to come are always welcome. Mrs. Owens, our other sponsor, has had quite a time tonight trying to keep the girls away from her good-looking husband.

Nancy Taylor, Dean of Women at Longwood College, has written a book for all high school seniors entitled "How to Pass American Government in Three Easy Lessons."

Marilou Shaffer tells us that she has been taking flying lessons so that she can keep up with all the Navy flyers.

Before we leave the party we are reminded that all the lovely flowers here tonight are from Skitsy's Flower Shop.

We all wondered why Mae and Leegie couldn't get to the party. Geneene (Hedda Hopper) Russell tells us that they are now holding the world's record as flag pole sitters. They have been looking towards the West Coast since 1951, singing to Boyd and Fred (as if they could hear) "Ain't ya Ever Comin' Back....."

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-one, of Oceana High School, being of our usual unsound minds, do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament.

SECTION I: TO THE ADMINISTRATION

Item I. To our School Board and Superintendent we leave our thanks for requiring us to complete twelve grades, therefore making us the smartest graduating class in the history of O. H. S.

Item II. To Mr. R. H. Owen we leave our thanks for his loyalty, leadership, and guidance in our first four years in high school.

Item III. To our principal we leave our undying gratitude for his guidance this past year. We hope he will forgive us for our many faults and for the antics which we tried often to make our senior year more exciting.

Item IV. To our beloved faculty, who seem so relieved to turn out another class in the world of today, we leave our sympathy for the future years here at Oceana. We deeply appreciate your efforts to teach us the ways of life. We hope you have the satisfaction of knowing we did try.

SECTION II: TO THE CLASSES

Item I. To the Eighth Grade we leave our Emily Post "Book of Etiquette" so that you may learn to WALK through the halls.

Item II. To the Freshmen we leave our talent for always being out of class. We hope you won't get into too much trouble.

Item III. To the Sophomores we leave our school spirit, pep, vim, and vigor. We also leave them our classroom knowledge so that they too may make the Beta Club.

Item IV. To the Junior Class we leave our seats in the auditorium, our privileges, and, most important of all, our dignified position as seniors.

Item V. To the Juniors individually we leave the following:

Floyd Brown leaves his Charles Atlas Course to Johnny McCloud and Warren Brinkley.

Skippy Hull leaves....we think the Junior girls will be better off that way.

Burnley Rhue leaves his position on the football team to Royce Byrd and his basketball ability to Bobby Bourdon.

Wilson Johnson leaves his heart with Doris Harcum to make her last year pass quickly.

Van Nance leaves his burning energy to Nita Aldridge and Kermit Land.

Buddy Carroll leaves Perry Chambers, Julian McDaniels, and Billy Powell to take over his position as glamour boy at O. H. S.

Leanora Holt leaves her locker in the East hall where she and Ralph spent so much time to Roger Miles and Bobby Henley.

Joan Curles leaves her baton and majorette uniform to Alfred Smith. Smitty always wanted to lead a band.

Mae Coleman leaves her "Dubarry Success Course" to Gretchen Kime and Arlene Myers—hoping they too, may one day be thin.

Betty Saunders and Faye Smith leave their quiet ways to Billy Jenkins and his trumpet.

Walter Whitehurst leaves his lavender tie and socks to Allen Culverhouse and Sidney Farrow.

Edward Wright leaves his place in the Allied Youth to Wilbur Snow and Catherine Meeks.

Jane Midgette leaves her advice on "How to Win a Husband Quickly" to Jean Tomlinson and Callie Price. We hope you girls get better results than Jane did.

Bessie Caffrey leaves her position on the basketball team to Helen Jones and Ora Dail Hardy.

Reed Godfrey leaves his beautiful red curls to Mary Bowden and Carole Ratley.

Clarence Snyder leaves his height to Charles Whitehurst so that he may look over the doors.

Nancy Taylor leaves her lovely disposition to Peggy Wood and Faye Lee Green.

Joe Burroughs leaves Oceana. But Joe wants Donald Old and Herman Medlin to take his place on the football team; he's sure Mr. Tomko will help them.

Marylewis Peck leaves her little black notebook to Lynda Searcy and Shirley Brothers so that they may profit by her carefully kept notes.

Audrey Morse leaves her slim waist-line to Elsie Rice and Betty Sue Brown.

Allegra Malbon leaves Nancy here to prove that there will always be a Malbon at Oceana.

Nancy Norfleet leaves her book on "How to Keep My Girlish Figure" to Betty Gardner and Doris Tillette, Don't overdo it, girls!

Blair Willcox leaves his traveling experiences to Curtis Widgeon so that he can be a man of the world if he isn't already.

Ray Hutsenpiller leaves his "teddy bear haircut" to Jimmy Barton so that he can make a big hit with the girls.

Skitsy Falconer leaves the LIGHTHOUSE to Wiley Harrell with lots of sympathy.

Frances Gilbert and Anita Capps leave their ability to tell jokes to Barbara Norryce and Mildred Godfrey so that Oceana won't get dull.

Bessie Melvin leaves her bottle of Peroxide to Shirley Davis.

Marilou Shaffer leaves her muscles to Patsy Abernathy and Mary Lee Ward so that they can fight off the men.

Lee Scarborough leaves his position as end on the football team to Billy Bartee. Here's hoping Billy catches as many passes as Lee did.

Genecne Russell leaves her excuses to go to the corner to Janis Hamrick.

Betty Brown leaves her pretty smile to Lillian Booker so that Lillian can take Betty's place at charming the teachers.

Doris Miller leaves her place in the Beta Club to Eleanor Smedley.

Nancy Dawson leaves her romance in the band and her drum to Marilyn Luedke. Don't let this make you late for class, Marilyn.

Melvina Ulrey leaves her books to Betsy Nelson. She says, "I hope you enjoy them more than I did."

Dalton Midgett leaves his boots to Joe Fail.

Buddy Owins leaves his ways with the ladies to Earl Reitlebach.

IT'S ALL YOURS . . .
